originaly from Palermo, in Sicily, insisted that he had reported the disappearance the day after the boy vanished although no record of it appeared in the Lost Persons bureau at No. 300 Mulberry street.

The boy is described as being three feet in height and weighing about forty-five pounds. He has a light complexion, black hair and eyes. When last seen he wore a blue knickerbocker suit; he has a noticeable scar on his left leg just above the knee.

TEA PARTY IN CHURCH.

Entertainment To-Night in the Thirteenth Street Welsh Presbyterian Church.

An old-fashioned tea party and entertainment will be given at the Thirteenth Street Welsh Presbyterian Church this evening. This church is the religious rendezvous of the Welshmen attached to the crews of the British steamships while in this port.

The music for the entertainment will be furnished by the band from the White Star liner Baltic.

"You Will Never See Him Jerome Himself Conducts Examination of Fuller for Nearly an Hour.

Redes, who has all along insisted that the District-Attorney in person. dnappers stole the boy, had advertised Assistant District-Attorney Murphy The World lately offering a reward and other attaches of Mr. Jerome's ofor the return of his son. This morn- fice who have been busy in the Culkin ng's mail brought to him a postal card matter were also deeply interested in some mysterious movements centering "Just because you have that foolish, around the office of the clerk of Special
